JAIL DELIVERY IN PITT COUNTY.
GREENVILLE, Pitt County, July 8.—Sylvester Waters, charged with burning James Dawson's gin-house last fall, James Greene, charged with stealing money from the Register of Deeds, Renee Satterwhite charged with burning Gen. 'Grimes' mill last month, Albert Chatham, charged with a deadly assault upon a woman (all colored), broke jail last night by prizing up the iron grating of the cell window.

After breaking jail they reached the top of the brick wall which inclosed it by means of a long heavy plank which had been used for the prisoners to sun their blankets upon. They were assisted by friends from the outside. Frank Bell, indicted for murder and Stanley Dixon, (col.) after the breaking, were in another part of the jail. The four who escaped were confined to a cell in the ground floor by themselves. Frank Bell awoke about 2 o'clock and finding the prisoners gone gave the alarm. So

The boiler to Mr. Thomas Nichols' steam mill will burst last Wednesday, and it is not faultily injuring Mr. Nichols' engine and a Mr. S. S. Belcher, Jr., the miller. The whole frame work of the engine was a complete wreck. There is an unprecedented number of deaths in this section and crops are suffering.

MRS. MOON AND THE "NEWS" IN WILSON.

WILSON, July 8.—Trade gods; expropriating gods; the cotton crop is exceptionally good; the glad news is that the boiler Mrs. Moon's convicting preaching has just come about. About fifty sinners have been converted to the mercy seat. The prejudice against her has been removed. She persevered in the good work of saving souls with all the more zeal and energy because of her banishment to Oxford.

Wilson has been very much improved by the erection of a dozen handsome brick stores on Tarboro and Nash streets. The new club cleaned out the Rock. Mounts the other day, scoring 20 to 12.

The News is heartily indorsed in Wilson. It is mainly independent of course consequently.

THE NEWS IN EDGECOMBE.

Am glad to see the "News," like old wine, improves with age. May misfortune never dim its present or future. —[Extract from a private letter from Tarboro.]

Rock House Cave, Franklin County.
Munchausen in the Oxford Torch Light.

Rock House Cave is located on the ledge of Rock Creek, about two miles west of the Fish Dam road. It has long been an object to the wonder-seer, and the young people in that section are accustomed to visit it on holidays and other festive and gala occasions, but the most dauntless until recently have never ventured but a short way within its somber chambers, for the simple reason that no flambeaux other than safety or storm lamps are able to

They witnessed the sudden puffs and gusts of wind that come at regular intervals, and they felt the further they went, the more powerful are the blasts. Lately an exploring party equipped themselves and entered the cave. They found several hundred chambers to the right and left of the main passage, which seems to be the throat of the cave. The chambers that they came to were the walls of a very solid and compact nature, the third was the finest that they had seen. The fourth was a new spacious of all, and at least fifty feet lower than the first, presented a variety of things. It was hung with stalagmites, and the ceiling was a fine section of rock. The fifth was a fine section, while in another were various layers of porroche, and still to the left of the entrance were numerous greenish looking stalagmites, and a few small porroche. From this last chamber they tardigadously approached what turned out to be a subterranean lake, of which they were not very far from ascertaining. It was in a state of unusual commotion, while a breeze kept blowing by jumps and starts like blasts of wind.

decuple louder roar. This produced considerable concitation among the party, but one who had brought along a dip-net to use in case they should find water, proceeded to use it. He soon caught several varieties of very white and silvery fish, one of which very closely resembled the tautog. An angulate about the size of a jack rabbit was seen standing near the edge of the water and in their attempt to capture it, one of the party slipped into the water, and made the primeval vault of that yet unexplored dungeon ringing with his cries for help.

The following are the most important proceedings while in session the past three days:

The appointment of County Examiner and School Committeemen was fixed for August meeting of this body. The constables in the different townships were ordered to renew their bonds on the first Monday in August. Persons who were summoned on the venire in the Henderson Alford case

The Justices of the Peace were notified to meet with the Board on the 1st Monday in August, for the purpose of settling the county taxes.

The Clerk announced that the overpaid tax scrip was ready for delivery. Considerable school business was transacted, and aid extended to outside schools.

A jury was drawn for the Superior Court to commence on the 11th of August.

A large batch of orders were allowed. The Board then adjourned till the first Monday in August.

Board of Aldermen.
The Aldermen met their Tuesday night meeting transacted business of considerable importance, among which was Street Commissioner's report relating to various matters; the Light Committee's report as to the number of new lights located; the amount of oil used and on hand and the price per barrel, with a statement that the expense for lighting would be less in future. A deed was received from Bradley T. Johnson and others conveying twelve acres of land taken from what is known as the Saunders property to the city of Raleigh to be used for streets.

Having adjourned until last evening, when the Board met, with Mayor Manly in the chair.

Applications for lights on several streets were referred to the Light Committee.

A motion was made that an oil tank be procured, to be made of sheet iron, and to hold five hundred gallons. Referred to Light Committee to receive bids.

furnish the city clerk with a list of retail liquor dealers, eating houses, owners of billiard tables and drays.

This was afterward amended to appoint a special committee to do the purchasing, and the Mayor thereupon appointed Aldermen W. McKee, Green and McAllister as such committee, they being experts in the matter of horseflesh.

When the "St. Nicholas" hotel was opened, many years ago, New York and the whole country were deeply interested in this most superb hotel.

Our district, only for you $1.00 per day, breakfast for two, in the morning, take your lunch down town, or dine with a friend, and your room at the hotel will be found to be a most comfortable and pleasant place to stay.

For Congress.—The fame of the average Congressmen is not very high, but during the last session it seems hardly worth while now to pay $20,000 for an election. Who wants the nomination in our district, only for you $1.00 per day, breakfast for two, in the morning, take your lunch down town, or dine with a friend, and your room at the hotel will be found to be a most comfortable and pleasant place to stay.

No better test of the civilization of a people can be found than in their hotels. Measured by this standard, such a hotel, for example, as the "St. Nicholas," New York, is a thing of the future.

Profitable Stock Investments.
Before Messrs. Lawrence & Co., the New York bankers, inaugurated the combination system of stock investments, it was often very difficult for inexperienced operators, or even old staggers, to profitably buy their single hands. Now, however, the field is open to every one for successful operations, and capital in any amounts, from $10 to $20,000, can be used with equal success. The Lawrence & Co. system of trading efforts among many customers, the orders of thousands are concentrated into one vast pool and co-operated in the market, and the result is a pro rata every month. A prominent citizen of San Francisco made $1,254.83 on an investment of $300 last month. The Lawrence & Co. system is still better. $25 pays $125 during the month, $200 returns $1,200, or 6 percent on the stock, and so on as the market rises. The Lawrence & Co. system is a sure rule for success, and full instructions for any one to operate profitably. All the advantages of unlimited capital and successful manipulation are secured by the combination method. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Deposits taken. BOVINE, MISSISSIPPI, April 22, 1879.
—The following correspondence will explain itself: A. WADDELL, Esq., LYNCBURG, VA.—Dear Sir: Observing a certificate from you in reference to the "Iron and Alum Mass," I have, in relation to its efficacy for Liver Bitters, would have the kindness to inform me whether you used the "Mass" or the "Water," also, a description of the symptoms and such information as you may deem pertinent. I am a long time suffering with Liver Complaint, and naturally feel very anxious on the subject of a remedy that will afford me even temporary relief. Your early reply will greatly oblige, very respectfully,

WILLIAM BARR.

LYNCBURG, VA., May 12, 1879.—WM. BARR, Esq., Bovine, Mississippi.—Dear Sir: Your inquiry in regard to the "Iron and Alum Mass," which was effectually cured in my family from using the "Seven Springs Mass," is before me. The case referred to in my certificate was that of my wife's sister, who is now in her eighth year, and has been a member of my family for the last 27 years. She had been afflicted with Liver disease for 30 years, sometimes for years at a time, and was now almost dying of the disease. She had been afflicted with the chest, heart-burns (intensely), sick stomach, vomiting, &c. I procured a few bottles of the "Seven Springs Mass," and after she began the use of it, her health commenced to get better, and she continued steadily to improve, and at this writing, she is as well as ever. Her health as a person who had never been afflicted with these diseases. She attributes her cure entirely to the efficacy of the "Seven Springs Mass." I regard it one of the greatest family medicines we have access to, not only for such diseases as above indicated, but for various other complaints for which it is recommended. Hoping these answers satisfy, I am, very truly, A. WADDELL, Proprietor Lynchburg News.

For sale by Wm. Simpson, Raleigh, N. C., and Druggists generally.

Lawrence & Co., the New York bankers, inaugurated the combination system of stock investments, it was often very difficult for inexperienced operators, or even old staggers, to profitably buy their single hands. Now, however, the field is open to every one for successful operations, and capital in any amounts, from $10 to $20,000, can be used with equal success. The Lawrence & Co. system of trading efforts among many customers, the orders of thousands are concentrated into one vast pool and co-operated in the market, and the result is a pro rata every month. BOVINE, MISSISSIPPI, April 22, 1879.
—The following correspondence will explain itself: A. WADDELL, Esq., LYNCBURG, VA.—Dear Sir: Observing a certificate from you in reference to the "Iron and Alum Mass," I have, in relation to its efficacy for Liver Bitters, would have the kindness to inform me whether you used the "Mass" or the "Water," also, a description of the symptoms and such information as you may deem pertinent. I am a long time suffering with Liver Complaint, and naturally feel very anxious on the subject of a remedy that will afford me even temporary relief. Your early reply will greatly oblige, very respectfully,

WILLIAM BARR.

LYNCBURG, VA., May 12, 1879.—WM. BARR, Esq., Bovine, Mississippi.—Dear Sir: Your inquiry in regard to the "Iron and Alum Mass," which was effectually cured in my family from using the "Seven Springs Mass," is before me. The case referred to in my certificate was that of my wife's sister, who is now in her eighth year, and has been a member of my family for the last 27 years. She had been afflicted with Liver disease for 30 years, sometimes for years at a time, and was now almost dying of the disease. She had been afflicted with the chest, heart-burns (intensely), sick stomach, vomiting, &c. I procured a few bottles of the "Seven Springs Mass," and after she began the use of it, her health commenced to get better, and she continued steadily to improve, and at this writing, she is as well as ever. Her health as a person who had never been afflicted with these diseases. She attributes her cure entirely to the efficacy of the "Seven Springs Mass." I regard it one of the greatest family medicines we have access to, not only for such diseases as above indicated, but for various other complaints for which it is recommended. Hoping these answers satisfy, I am, very truly, A. WADDELL, Proprietor Lynchburg News.
